

Welcome to Team Agriculture Georgia

Contributed by Webmaster
Monday, 03 December 2007
Last Updated Tuesday, 14 October 2008

Team Agriculture Georgia (TAG) is an organization comprised of federal and state agencies, agricultural groups, state agricultural educational institutions and non-governmental agricultural organizations. TAG was created by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food and Agriculture Council in Georgia to identify opportunities for collaborative outreach efforts to farmers with emphasis on limited resource and beginning farmers. The vision of TAG is all agricultural producers availing themselves of the services and technical assistance needed to help sustain their agricultural operations.